

For immediate release

April 19, 2021 The First Broadcast of “Radio Suspense Theatre” from Prince Edward County “A Theatre Club” in cooperation with 99.3 County FM are proud to present the second production on “The Radio Players Show”; Steve Cleberg’s comedy / mystery “Radio Suspense Theatre”

Despite the continuing challenges that the pandemic has presented us with; we remain positive and diligent in finding ways to bring the talents together to provide a wonderful entertainment experience to our listeners and creative people.

99.3 County FM is the first radio station in the world to air the production, episode 1 begins Sunday April 25th at 8:00 pm.

Listen as a production team and cast of 17 writers, directors, sound people, musicians and actors bring this play to life every Sunday from April 25 to May 23.

“Radio Suspense Theatre” tells the story of a small 1940’s radio station as love blossoms backstage and a plucky sound technician steps in for an absent star, the company bands together to bring two original, thrilling tales of suspense to life, framed by music and ads of the era. But what about the real suspense...the ratings? Tune in to find out!

Philip Knox, Executive Producer, A Theatre Club: “In our second production we expanded the number of members to allow more people to have a chance to participate safely. We also added live musicians to our recording for the first time and our youngest member yet. We will continue to experiment with new productions and adding other surprises as our members dream them up.”

Craig Mills, GM, 99.3 County FM: We've had a lot of positive comments about the first play and are looking forward to this new five-week series with "A Theatre Club". 99.3 County FM is grateful for the chance to deliver this exciting series to the people of Prince Edward County and beyond. It's a nice chance to do something completely different on a Sunday night and you get enjoy the actors from our region free of charge.
